5th Grade Social Studies Biographical 1st Person Presentations

All the 5th grade students participated in a memorized 1st person presentation. Each student chose a person to research and learn about. The students were given the task to memorize and learn about events from this person's life and come to life and present their lives to the class. The students worked for 3 weeks in preparation. On the day of the presentations, the students dressed as their person, brought in props, and presented (at minimum 3 minutes) to the class. Our guests ranged from astronauts, authors, scientists, singers, athletes, doctors, actresses, painters, cowboys, and inventors and Our class was introduced to the following guests:

- Susan- Sally Ride
- Tristan - Charles Shulz
- Mallorie- Marian Anderson
- June- Leonardo DaVinci
- Leland- Calamity Jane
- Johnny- Alexander Graham Bell
- Ellie- Louisa May Alcott
- Reyna- Gertrude Chandler Warner
- Joceilynn- Nellie Bly
- Jeremiah- Kit Carson
- Carlos- Frank Baum
- Kaden- Sam Houston
- Lydia- William Penn
- Gauge- Kirby Puckett
- Paityn- Abigail Adams

They each did a FANTASTIC JOB.....

Senior Spotlight

Trae Joel Hoerrmann

“He who is not courageous enough to take risks will accomplish nothing in life.”

-Muhammad Ali

What are your future plans?

After school I am planning on working with my grandpa as a mechanic and then a few years down our plan is for me to buy him out and take over the shop.

What activities are you involved in?

Basketball and FFA

Describe yourself using three adjectives.

Athletic, Hardworking, Big-Hearted

What is your favorite thing about Linn County?

Playing basketball with classmates and friends.

Who at Linn County has influenced you the most?

Mr. Livingston is the person that has influenced me because he has supported my academics and he has also supported my shooting sports.

Brendan David Ratliff

“Get busy living, or get busy dying.”

-Stephen King

What are your future plans?

Go to Nevada for welding. Then I am going to work with the Iron Workers or another welding company.

What is your favorite thing about Linn County?

Sports

Who at Linn County has influenced you the most?

Coach White. It may only be his first year here, but he has pushed me to be a leader. He has pushed me to be better than who I was. He has overall changed the way I am for the better.

News from Mrs. Gray

Yay, Spring is right around the corner. The school calendar has many events on it from now until the end of the year. Spring baseball and track will soon begin. The academic bowl season will be getting started soon also.

Thank you for your continued support of the Linn County School.

Valentine Parties

The elementary held their Valentine Parties on Friday, February 12th. The students exchanged valentine cards, had snacks, and participated in games. Thank you to everyone that was able to send treats and/or supplies for the parties.

Parent/Teacher Conferences

Parent/Teacher Conferences will be held on Monday, March 15th. The conferences will be held from 12-6 p.m. We hope to see you then.

Linn County In-School Spelling Bee

The Linn County school spelling bee consists of the top 5 spellers from 4th, 5th, and 6th grades. The spelling bee will take place on Wednesday, March 24th at 1:00 p.m. in the Linn County gymnasium. The top two spellers from each grade will then move on to the county spelling bee. Good luck to all that participate.

Unclaimed Masks

June Woodside, our school nurse, has unclaimed masks in her office. If these look familiar, contact her at jwoodside@linnr1.k12.mo.us or (660) 244-5045.

Preschool News

In Preschool we are having fun learning about our letters, numbers, and making healthy choices for our bodies. We even learned how to brush our teeth and keep germs from spreading!

For Valentine's Day we made several crafts, played games, and had fun passing out our Valentines to our friends!
